Re: United States v. Kevin Scott, 13 Cr. 962 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

The Government writes, with the consent of the defense, to respectfully request that the Court vacate the bench warrant issued on November 8, 2019 and set a date for the parties to appear.

On November 8, 2019, the Court issued a bench warrant for Mr. Scott's arrest based upon his failure to appear for a violation of supervised release conference. On November 14, 2019, the defense advised the Government that Mr. Scott had been hospitalized during the preceding week, and that Mr. Scott had thereafter entered a 28-day inpatient drug treatment program. On November 18, 2019, the United States Marshals Service visited the treatment program location and confirmed that Mr. Scott is present and receiving inpatient care. Mr. Scott remains at the program.

Defense counsel will be on trial in the Northern District of New York beginning on December 16, 2019. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the Court vacate the bench warrant and set a date for the parties to appear during the second week of January 2020 or later.

Respectfully submitted,

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York

Application granted. Warrant vacated. Conference scheduled for January 24, 2020 at 4:00 p.m.

SO ORDERED:

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III
